What Volunteers are Saying

"Siena Retreat Center has enriched my life and my spirit in so many ways throughout the years. It is an honor to play a small role in welcoming others to this sacred space as a volunteer."
- Dining Room Volunteer

"I love how peaceful it isto be here. It's wonderful to be where people come to feed their souls. There is something holy about that. It is exactly what they need here. Volunteering at the Siena Retreat Center is a blessing to me while hopefully being a blessing to others."
- Front Desk Volunteer

"Volunteers are the heart of hospitality. They help each guest feel at home and cared for from the moment they arrive. Hospitality, to me, is helping people feel that they're in the right place at the right time."

- Debbie Giese,
Director of Hospitality

While many of our staff work behind the scenes, our volunteers are the face, voice, and heart of Siena Retreat Center. They embody the peace, joy, and beauty we hope every guest experiences here. Do you see yourself in that role? If volunteering at Siena has ever crossed your mind, maybe that nudge is worth listening to. We invite you to join us in living our mission by becoming a volunteer.
