“Life can feel heavy, and Siena Retreat Center is a sanctuary that helps you reconnect with yourself while navigating both your inner and outer world.”

Our Mission

The welcoming community of Siena Retreat Center provides retreats and programs that renew lives and deepen holistic spirituality in an environment of peace, joy, and beauty. In the spirit of the Racine Dominicans, we seek to be a catalyst for a more just and compassionate world.

Since 1966, Siena Retreat Center has been a sanctuary where individuals and groups find peace and inspiration. As we conclude our 60th anniversary year, we give thanks for the many people whose journeys have shaped this sacred space.

Come to the Water....

Executive Director's Report

Dear Community,

When we realize the interconnectedness of all that is, barriers dissolve and defenses diminish, while compassion, understanding, and hope are strengthened. Celebrating six decades of engagement in a spirituality that heals divisions and embraces peace is the highlight of this year. The year began with an Open House and continued with the uplifting singing of Perfect Harmony Chorus during our Spring Concert.

You may have noticed that we have grouped our retreats and programs around five themes that correspond to five basic spiritual needs. In an online survey, we found that Siena Retreat Center plays an important role in helping people meet their spiritual needs.

The Board and Staff are leading our organization into a time of increased responsibility for the services and funding that the Sisters have generously provided for many years. Our new three-tiered pricing structure is helping us cover more of the actual cost of offering retreats and programs, while we continue to offer need-based partial scholarships.

I hope you will enjoy reliving some of the special moments of this year, while we together lay the foundation for the next six decades.

Celebrating 60 Years of Retreat Ministry!

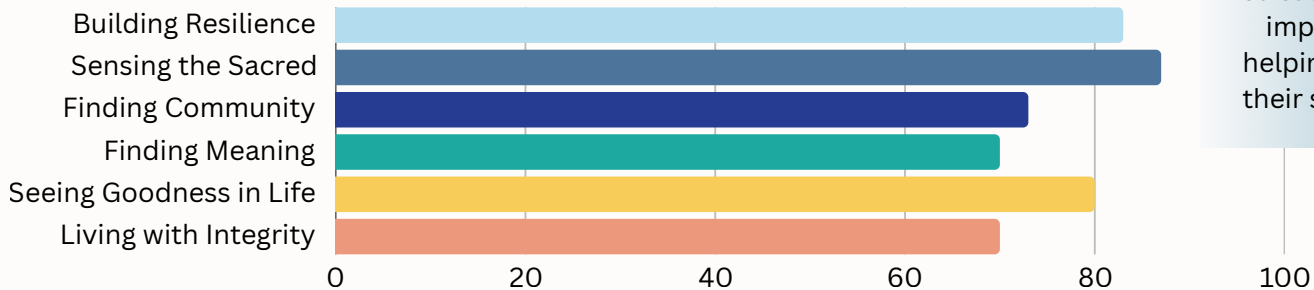

The afternoon of Thursday, January 29, 2026, was filled with connection, conversation, and community. Over 150 people gathered to celebrate the retreat ministry's beginnings, its flourishing in the present, and its future. Racine's Mayor proclaimed the day "Siena Retreat Center Day!" An historical exhibit, 60th Anniversary logo cookies, micro-retreat experiences, a lovely lounge, and delicious food helped to make the event enjoyable for long-time retreat supporters and newcomers alike.

Above: This 1986 newspaper clipping documents the sentiments of members of our earliest retreat group, the Ecumenical Women's Retreat. Member Rose Akgoulian shared, "There's such a bond of closeness between women of different religious and social backgrounds... It's like being at the mountain top and it's what our world ought to be like."

Community Survey Demonstrates Our Effectiveness in Fulfilling Spiritual Needs

Our 2026 online survey revealed that Siena Retreat Center plays an important role in helping people meet their spiritual needs.

Our Mission Lived Out

The Chicago Meditates Group Finds Support for the Inner Life at Siena Retreat Center

When members Chicago Meditates find that something in their lives calls them to take time apart from the busyness of everyday life, they make the decision to come for a retreat.

“There is a ‘ripeness’ for spiritual insight that often occurs when the distraction of noise is released and there is an extended period of openness to what lies in the depths of the heart and soul,” explains group contact person Steve Starr.

The group’s silent retreat spans three and a half days.

“There is support for gentle movement into our inner lives,” shares Steve, “by the natural world we see on the Siena campus,

The Chicago Meditates group brings “a new way of seeing” to their communities after their silent retreats at Siena Retreat Center.

by the staff who graciously support our efforts with their kindness, and by the spiritual community of Dominican sisters who have devoted a lifetime to prayerful reflection. A silent retreat at Siena can be a doorway into a new way of seeing that changes how life unfolds after people leave retreat.”

Quiet Days for Renewal Reflect Hunger for Silence

Over the last few years, we have seen a steady increase in the number of people coming to this sacred space for their own individual retreats. Our popular Quiet Days for Renewal play an important role in introducing people to the experience of retreat.

Now in their second year, our Quiet Days for Renewal are 24-hour silent directed retreats. Retreatants gather at the beginning and the end of the time for shared prayer and reflection. Each person has the option of a one-hour spiritual guidance session with the facilitator, Vicky Curtiss. The rest of their time is spent in silence.

Participants are introduced to a variety of spiritual practices, such as walking the labyrinth and Lectio Divina. Participants often devote time to walking through the restored prairie, resting, journaling, or writing a “nesting meditation.”

“What I appreciated about the Quiet Day for Renewal retreat was the opportunity to be in silence, the loose structure, the ideas for how to spend our time in silence (with the flexibility to decide on our own) meeting with Vicky for spiritual guidance, and the space - the labyrinth, prairie, lake, meditation and prayer room, and the creativity room with its art supplies. The silence, beauty, and simplicity of this retreat center are great.”

"Rita's was a very non-egoic way of operating. It was all about the other. This manifested in her being an excellent listener, encouraging the other to know themselves more deeply while feeling cared for."

- Tom Buhler

"Sister Rita Lui assumed the role of leader of the Siena Retreat Program with enthusiasm, combined with a huge dose of hospitality. The programs were expanded, with attendees from far and wide. She will always be remembered as a Bright Light in her community and beyond, touching so many hearts with her grace-filled persona. Well done, dear Rita. May you now rest in peace."

As Siena Retreat Center celebrates 60 years of embracing its mission of renewing lives and deepening holistic spirituality, we do so with deep gratitude for the vision, generosity, and wisdom of the Racine Dominicans and other dedicated people who established this retreat ministry in this sacred place.

As we look toward the future, the Retreat Center is building the financial strength necessary to operate independently and sustain its mission by taking on more stewardship of the retreat building. Achieving this will require growth in hospitality, expanded programming, and strengthening the philanthropic partnership with those who further the Retreat Center's mission.

"There is nothing like letting the world wash away for a few days to clear your mind and clarify your values. This can happen at Siena because of its quiet, calm, lovely environment. In a world of "I should...." all day, here at Siena, it's more about peace and refueling. It's like taking a vitamin for your soul."
